Hi from Belgium!

As I was sitting in the central train station of Brussels, an Arab man, his wife, and baby, passed by. I smiled at them and after taking a few more steps, the man turned back and greeted me. He is a Syrian refugee and he and his family fled the war. I had the privilege of sitting with this family and listening to their story. I also shared about the bookmark project. I said to him, "This is a gift to you from Palestine but do you know the greatest gift that came out of Palestine?" Jesus, God's eternal Living Word, is the greatest gift from Palestine! At this, my friend smiled. God opened the door for me to share from Creation to the New Creation in Christ with several Syrian and Iraqi individuals and couples on Friday and Monday. Please continue to pray that God will add faith to the Gospel seeds planted!

As we made plans to return to USA to have baby number 8, our whole family voted that they would rather drive back across the country than fly directly back to San Francisco. We are all excited to see relatives, friends, and new friends that we made on our trip last year. William had the chance to speak at many churches and home groups across the USA and it will be good to see these folks again and encourage their prayers with fresh stories of what God is doing in Europe and the Middle East. We are also praying that God will call more workers to the field as a part of our praying and sharing! Matthew 9:37-38

God helped us find great tickets to Maryland for $177 each! We arrive, Lord willing, on March 2. We REALLY want to see as many of you as possible. Below is our tentative, flexible itinerary. If you would like to set a time to meet with us or if you know someone where we have some gaps along the way, please let us know! Please pray that God will encourage many in their prayer life, through this trip. Also, we pray that the baby will come on time on May 22 so we make it to CA first! ;) We know that an important part of our calling is to "Go home and tell" what God is doing!

We look forward to hearing from you and seeing you!! ;)
